Launch of an offering of maximum €200 million of bonds convertible into new shares and/or exchangeable for existing shares (OCEANE)

Econocom Group SE (“Econocom”), a European player specializing in the digital transformation of organisations, announces today the launch of an offering of maximum €200 million of bonds convertible into new shares and/or exchangeable for existing shares (OCEANE) due 2023 (the “Bonds”).

Key terms of the Bonds

This offering will allow Econocom to increase its financial resources, especially in the context of its “e for excellence 2018-2022” strategic plan that was announced on 3 October 2017. This plan should enable Econocom to pursue its mixed growth strategy combining organic growth and acquisitions. Econocom aims to double its operating profit once again to reach €300m by 2022 and achieve revenue of €4billion.

The Bonds are due to mature on 6 March 2023 and will carry a nominal coupon comprised between 0.00% and 0.75% per annum payable annually in arrear on 6 March of each year (or on the following business day if this date is not a business day), and for the 1st time on 6 March 2019. The par value of the Bonds (and hence the initial conversion price) is expected to be set at a premium of 30% to 35% above Econocom’s reference share price¹.

The final terms and conditions of the Bonds are expected to be announced later today and the settlement-delivery is expected to take place on 6 March 2018 (the “Issue Date”).

¹ Reference share price, calculated as the volume-weighted average price of the Econocom Share on Euronext Brussels (“Euronext Brussels”) (BE0974313455 - ECONB) from the start of trading today until the determination of the final terms of the Bonds on the same day

The Bonds will be issued at par and will be redeemed at par on 6 March 2023 (or on the following business day if this date is not a business day), unless they are prior to maturity (i) redeemed, (ii) converted or (iii) repurchased and cancelled.

Econocom will have the option to redeem all of the Bonds early on or after 29 March 2021, subject to a minimum 30 calendar day prior notice, at par (plus accrued interest) in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Bonds, if the arithmetic mean over a specified period of the daily products of the prevailing conversion / exchange ratio on each day and the volume weighted average price of the Econocom shares (the “Shares”) exceeds 130% of the nominal value of the Bonds.

Conversion / exchange right

From the Issue Date (i.e. 6 March 2018) and up to (and including) the 8th business day preceding the maturity date or the relevant early redemption date, the Bonds will entitle their holders to receive Econocom Shares at a conversion / exchange ratio of one Share per Bond, subject to any potential subsequent adjustments.

Upon exercise of their conversion / exchange right, bondholders will receive, at the option of Econocom, new and/or existing Shares. Econocom new Shares eventually delivered shall carry current rights to dividends as from the date of delivery of the Shares.

Lock-up

In the context of the offering, Econocom and its main shareholder will agree to a lock-up ending 90 days following the Issue Date, subject to customary exceptions. This lock-up can be waived with prior consent of the Joint Lead Managers and Joint Bookrunners.

Conditions for placement and availability of documentation

The Bonds will be offered through a private placement to institutional investors only. The Bonds may not be offered or sold to Retail Investors (as defined hereafter). Neither the Bonds nor the Shares will be offered to investors in the United States of America, Canada, Japan or Australia.

Application to admit the Bonds to trading on the Open Market (Freiverkehr) of the Frankfurt Stock Exchange will be made. Such listing is expected within 30 days from the Issue date.

Any dividend levels referred to in the documentation of the offering and relating to the anti-dilution mechanisms defined in the terms and conditions of the Bonds are to be used strictly for this purpose and shall not be deemed to constitute any future guidance with respect to any dividend policy of the Company.

Crédit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank and Société Générale Corporate & Investment Banking are acting as Joint Lead Managers and Joint Bookrunners in respect of the Bond offering.
